

Brenda Forbes-Butler Joins Queenstown Bank

QUEENSTOWN, Md. (September 15, 2020) - Brenda Forbes-Butler has joined Queenstown Bank as Assistant Vice President and Regional Loan Officer and it was announced she will be headquartered out of their Easton Branch. With her 25 years in community banking and having worked in all aspects of the branch, she understands community banking as whole.

Brenda has numerous certifications obtained through the Center for Financial Training (CFT), the American Bankers Association, Chesapeake College and is a graduate of the CFT Branch Manager School and CFT Lending Academy which teaches the analytical process and decision-making techniques needed to make sound credit decisions through the application of financial accounting, financial statement analysis, and cash flow analysis. This is essential to understanding what customers need to run a strong business and what the Bank needs to make sound lending decisions. “I’m excited to join the team at Queenstown Bank, a true community bank focused on understanding our customers’ needs and delivering prompt and effective solutions that will assist them in achieving their goals of economic success and financial security,” said Brenda Forbes-Butler, “I look forward to continuing building and promoting my banking relationships within our community”.

Brenda volunteers regularly and has had several Board affiliations including the Talbot County Chamber of Commerce (President Ambassador Committee), Friends of Hospice (Board President), St. Mark’s United Methodist Church Strategic Plan and Scholarship Committees, Shore Leadership and many more.

“We are very excited to have Brenda join the Banks’ lending team. I am confident in her abilities and the contributions she will most certainly make to the Bank with her true understanding of the Eastern Shore and community banking. She will be a very welcome addition as we strengthen our commitment to our community,” said Kevin B. Cashen, President and CEO.
